To

The Comptroller, Mysore Gazette

No. 5279 Dt. 24-2-1922

Notifies that no Competitive Examination will be held during the year 1922 for the admission of selected Candidates into Mysore Civil Service

WD 2233—GPB—20,000—14-6-20

Serial No.

There are now no vacancies in the Cadre of Asst. Comrs. and there are 10 Prov. Asst. Comrs. appointed in January 1920 to be Confirmed during the Current year if they qualify themselves by passing all the prescribed Local Service tests & by undergoing the prescribed training.

The number of Asst. Comrs who attain the age of 55 or whose extension of service expires during the current year is 3.

The number of Dy. Comrs. & Asst. Comrs. who attain the age of 55 or whose extension of Services expires during the years 22-23, 23-24 & 24-25 is 15.

The present sanctioned cadre of Senior Assistant Commissioners and Assistant Commissioners is 78 i.e., 12 Senior Assistant Commissioners + 66 Assistant Commissioners. The above figure includes 4 Senior Assistant Commissioners who are to be doing duty as 1st Grade Magistrates and 6 Assistant Commissioners who are to be doing duty as Second Grade Magistrates. The entire number 78 can be filled up only after the scheme for the separation of judicial and Executive functions has been introduced in all the Districts and the full number of officers in each of the two grades are employed on magisterial work. At present Mr. R.Nanasami Rao, Senior Assistant Commissioner and Messrs. K.V.Anantaraman, B.Narayanasami Iyengar, and N.Sundararaja Iyengar, Assistant Commissioners are doing duty as Magistrates The net permissible cadre of officers in the combined cadre is therefore six less than 78 ~~or~~ i.e 72. Against this there are at present, according to the latest Civil List, 8 permanent Senior Assistant Commissioner and 19 plus 49 or 68 permanent Assistant Commissioner making a total of 76 which ~~is in~~ gives an excess of 4 over the permissible Civil Service Cadre, ~~that is, not taking into account, posts allotted for duties not now being done by Assistant Commissioners~~.

Against a real excess of four in the present ca there are 10 probationary Assistant Commissioners, wh ~~xx~~ may qualify for confirmation this month or in May next and also 10 provisionally permanent Assistant Commissioners whose appointments have tobe placed on a permanent footing.

Taking future chances, it is found that the following officers of and above the grade of - - - - Assistant Commissioners may retire in the ordinary course by December 1925 unless their services are extended beyond that date.

The following four officers/provisionally permanent Assistant Commissioners will also retire by December 1925.

(1) Mr. S.Reuben	... ...	1925
(2) "T.Venkatasamaiya	...	1922
(3) " S.Narasimha Sastri	...	1924
(4) " C.B.Lakshmana Rao	...	1925

In calculating the available permanent vacancies during the next 3 years, account has also to be taken of the probable reduction in the cadre, abolition of superior posts or combinations of posts, due to retrenchments in expenditure or reduction of work. To hazard a few guesses it will not be improbable that (1) the posts of the Financial Secretary and the Comptroller may be combined into one (2) the post of the Deputy Superintendent of Revenue Survey may be abolished by the year 1925 or soon after that date owing to the speeding up of resettlement operations. and (3) the following posts may be abolished on account of retrenchment:--

(a) One of the Assistant Secretaries to His Highness the Maharaja

(b) An Assistant Secretary in the Secretariat

(c) Personal Assistant to the Deputy Commissioner, Tumkur (allcads ordered from 1-7-24)

(d) Assistant Commissioner, Chintamani Division.

(e) Second Assistant to the Revenue Commissioner

To summarise, it is found firstly that there is now an excess of 4 in the permissible permanent cadre of the Civil Service, secondly that there are at present 10 Probationary Assistant Commissioners and 10 Assistant Commissioners provisionally permanent, who have to be found permanent posts as early as practicable-(in fact the first mentioned 10 have to be given permanent posts immediately they qualify and treated as supernumeraries) and thirdly there are likely to be 23 permanent vacancies by the end of December 1925, out of which roughly ~~about~~ at least 6 may be absorbed by reductions in the cadre itself, leaving only 17 vacancies for the existing probationers and provisionally permanent Assistant Commissioners, who number 20. The excess/4 existing at present will also have to be absorbed ~~by the occurrence of~~ from the new vacancies. There will therefore be very few chances of permanent vacancies being available even by the end of December 1925 for probationary - - - - Assistant Commissioners to be recruited at an examination to be held this year. The number of vacancies in January 1925 by which date those appointed in January 1923 can be expected to qualify will be fewer still.

All things considered it appears, therefore, desirable to postpone the holding of the examination for another year.

Submitted to His Highness.

Under Rule III of the Mysore Civil Service Rules, a competitive Examination for admission to the grade of Assistant Commissioners has to be held once in two years. The last examination having been held in 1919 an examination should have been held under the rules in 1921. But it was ordered that the examination need not be held that year but might be deferred by one or two years. Vide Resolution of the Council dated 10th December 1920 and His Highness's orders thereon dated 22nd December 1920.

The number of probable vacancies during the next few years has been examined in the office notes and the question of holding the examination this year was considered in Council on the 9th February 1922 when it was resolved that no examination need be held this year.

The recommendation of the Council may be graciously approved.
